A Pleasing Entertainment.

THE Cooper & Co. show will exhibit in this city Wednesday and Thursday. Their educated dogs and ponies are pleasing features, and the price of admission is in reach of all—ten cents. Take the children.

Walking To The Cave.

HARDIN LUCAS and Henry Shaw, two of Lexington's well known young men, started Wednesday to walk to the Mammoth Cave. They expect to walk thirty miles per day and will reach the Cave next week. They will return by a different route.

Col. Baldwin Sued.

COL. W. W. BALDWIN failed to come to Paris Tuesday to make the Bourbon Fiscal Court a proposition to sell fourteen miles of his road—the Maysville & Lexington turnpike—and suit has been filed by the Bourbon County officials to condemn the road. The three commissioners appointed to appraise the turnpike are C. M. Clay, Jr., Catesby Woodford and John C. Clay. The suit will likely be tried by the County Court in August.

The Maysville & Lexington pike is the only toll road in Bourbon, and the gates will be removed from it just as soon as the suit is decided.

Bourbon Wheat Crops Sold.

MANY Bourbon farmers have sold their wheat crops at fifty-eight and sixty cents per bushel, and are delivering same this week. The yield is good and the quality is fine. The Paris Milling Co. has bought about 20,000 bushels so far, the largest crops being 3,500 bushels from Henry and Jesse Letton, 2,500 from Alf Batterton, 1,500 from Ed Burke, Jos. Howerton, 1,500, Joe Penn, 2,500. R. B. Hutchcraft & Co. have bought about 20,000 bushels, including 4,500 bushels from Dick Barnett, Mrs. N. Marsh 2,000, A. W. Cunningham, 2,000, Newt. Smith 1,000, Hub Griffith 1,000.

Sixty cents was the ruling price yesterday.

An Ex-Parisian Robbed.

MR. GEO. WEEKS, formerly of this city, now book-keeper of the Second National Bank, of Lexington, was held up near Lexington Monday evening, by two highwaymen and robbed of his purse, containing $1.95, a bunch of keys, pocket-book filled with papers, knife, and two small photographs, but the robbers overlooked his gold watch in an inside coat pocket. Mr. Weeks was in company with a young lady, both riding bicycles, but the lady was not molested. They had just stopped near a tollgate to light their lanterns when the robbers appeared.

The robbers immediately afterwards attempted to rob the tollgate but were fired upon.
